After the excitement, a refreshing siestas at the camp spot with some relaxation under the shades of huge trees. At sunset, this landscape shows its most beautiful side. will paddle you through this serene area of narrow reed lined channels in traditional dug-out mokoro, floating through the waterways which open out onto beautiful lagoons. After arriving at one of the many secluded islands, which make up this fragile yet dynamic, unique eco-system we make camp and have lunch, followed by a guided bush walk after relaxing in camp.

The most rewarding and enjoyable way to see and experience the beauty and serenity of the intricate system of lily covered channels and lagoons, which make up the Okavango Delta, is undoubtable by Mokoro, which glide quietly and effortlessly through the whispering papyrus of the shallow water channels. The Mokoro Trails offers a snapshot view of the traditional mode of transport utilized for hundreds of years by the Bayei tribe's people living in the area. Although the mokoro trails is not primarily a game viewing activity, a variety of game may be spotted in this pristine wilderness area including, hippos, elephant, giraffe and zebra.

The opportunity to swim in a safe location will be offered as well as time to try and master poling a Mokoro.

After the bush walk, we can relax and unwind in the camp, refresh and take another mokoro in the afternoon, enjoy sunset in the delta and later take dinner under the stars before zipping into cosy tents and retiring to the sounds of the wild.

Day 2 Okavango Delta to Maun
