

TOUR DESCRIPTION

The heat, the dust, the clapping and the rhythmic stamping of feet all add to an intensely spiritual experience. Different dances are performed to tell the life story of the San people. There are hunting and gathering dances, rite of passage, puberty and courtship dances and, of course, trance healing dances. Hunting dances are dramatic renditions of the hunt – from spoor recognition to the ultimately slaughtering the animal. They celebrate a successful hunt and pay reverent respect to Mother Nature.

Day 1 & 2 Maun to D'Kar 5nights/6days

Meet your Professional safari guide at Maun international Airport, introduction, briefly before you depart to D'kar village for 2 nights. Visit the site of the Museum which houses a wealth of San culture and history. See the unique pieces of artwork including paintings and prints.

The next day we witness the dance, songs, drums, ululating as they skillfully show cast their rich culture.

Many of our safaris are tailor made to suite the traveller and you are welcome to do a combination of lodge and mobile safaris on request.

Have the opportunity to have dinner around the fire with the San Tribe.

Day 3 D'kar to Moremi Game Reserve

We break the camp and head to Moremi Game Reserve

Moremi Game Reserve is situated in the central and eastern areas of the Okavango, and includes the Moremi Tongue and chief's island, boasting one of the richest and most diverse ecosystems on the continent. This makes for spectacular game viewing and bird watching, including all major naturally occurring herbivore and carnivore species in the region, and over 400 species of birds, many migratory and some endangered. Both Black and White Rhino have recently been re-introduced, now making the reserve a 'Big Five' destination.

On arrival find your camp already set by our camp staff, siesta, shower, dinner around the fire with your safari team, share your daily experience before your good night sleep.

Day 4 Moremi Game Reserve

Wake up early in the morning, have your breakfast before going for a mokoro dugout canoe activity while still mornings. Meet the poler guide as he /she takes you through the waterways. A mokoro is a slim craft that is ideal for travelling through the reedy and winding waterways. The design of the craft allows it to part the lily pads and reeds as it glides across the water. While the passengers slip into a daydream-like state, entranced by the rocking sensation and the magic of the Okavango, the guide/poler stands at the rear of the craft, propelling the mokoro with a long wooden pole through the water. Indeed, you will discover tranquility on a mokoro safari, but that's not all. You'll find out that the silence of this wilderness area actually hums with many sounds, from the chorus of insects and frogs to bird calls and the breeze rustling through the reeds. Somehow, every one of your senses becomes wonderfully alive. The tiniest creatures can be seen in colorful clarity and you can get really close to animals drinking at the water's edge. Papyrus swamps.

Packed lunch will be carried with you because after mokoro we do afternoon game drives. Our main focus is to see predators, more actions at this destination. We will have Bush lunch as we continue with our drives till sunset. We expect to see lions, leopard, buffalos, Zebras more birds species, Rhinos, Hippos and more general game not forgetting the wild dogs .Later return to the camp, siesta, shower, dinner before you share your daily experience with your professional safari guide around the fire. Have a good night sleep under canvas.

Day 5 Moremi Game Reserve

Morning game drives after breakfast before going a boat cruise activity late afternoon. Late afternoon cruises can be particularly enjoyable, as you watch the sun set beautifully over the waters with a drink in hand before making your way back to camp for aperitifs and dinner.

Wildlife encounters will always involve hippo, and you will almost certainly see crocodiles basking in the sun, water based antelope running through the shallower waters, and elephant and buffalo arriving to drink and graze. The
